Placer County Elections Office certifies March 5, 2024 Presidential Primary Election results

AUBURN, Calif. -- The Placer County Elections Office has announced that the canvass and certification of the March 5, 2024 Presidential Primary Election has been completed and that results are now considered official.

Under Chapter 4 of California election code, county elections offices are required to perform a number of post-election canvassing activities to ensure the accuracy of election results, including a manual tally (i.e., hand count) of randomly selected ballots. Over 5% (nearly 7,500) of all ballots cast in Placer County were included in this manual tally; canvass results demonstrated that ballots were counted correctly and accurately by elections equipment.

Those interested in election canvassing policies and procedures can visit the Elections Office at 3715 Atherton Road in Rocklin, call 1-800-824-8683 or email election@placer.ca.gov for more information or to have any questions answered.
