Information for Ballot Arguments for Measures Appearing in the November 6, 2018 General Election

The California Elections Code governs the preparation and submittal of ballot arguments and rebuttal arguments in favor of or against ballot measures. The Placer County Elections Office has prepared this guide to help answer questions regarding the ballot argument preparation and submittal process. If you have questions not answered by the information below, please contact the Placer County Elections Office.

Any references to “E.C.” refer to the California Elections Code.

BALLOT ARGUMENTS:

The Board of Supervisors or any member of the Board authorized by the Board, or any individual voter who is eligible to vote on the measure, or bona fide association of citizens, or any combination of such voters and associations may file a written argument for or against any county measure. No argument shall exceed 300 words in length. (E.C. 9162)

Title: The arguments shall be titled either “Argument in Favor of Measure_____” or “Argument against Measure_____.” (E.C. 9162)

Number of Words: Arguments cannot exceed 300 words in length. Attached is Elections Code Section 9 to help you determine the number of words in the text of any argument. (E.C. 9162)

Signatures: A ballot argument shall not be accepted unless accompanied by the name or names of the person or persons submitting it, or, if submitted on behalf of an organization, the name of the organization and the name of at least one of its principal officers.

No more than five signatures shall appear with any argument submitted. In case more than five persons sign any argument, the signatures of the first five shall be printed. (E.C. 9164)

Argument Not Accepted Without Consent From Person Included In Text: An argument that includes in its text the name or title of a person, other than the author of the argument, who is represented as being for or against a measure, shall not be accepted unless the argument is accompanied by the signed consent of that person. The consent of a person, other than an individual, shall be signed by an officer or other duly authorized representative. "Person" as used in this section means an individual, partnership, corporation, association, committee, labor organization, and any other organization or group of persons.

More Than One Argument: If more than one argument for or against any county measure is submitted, the county elections official shall give preference and priority in the following order. (E.C. 9166)

1. The Board of Supervisors, or member or members of the Board.
2. The individual voter, or bona fide association of citizens, or combination of voters and associations, who are the bona fide sponsors or proponents of the measure.
3. Bona fide associations of citizens.
4. Individual voters who are eligible to vote on the measure.

Author Information: In order to transmit opposing arguments and to make a determination of which argument to print if more than one argument is submitted, the Elections Office needs to have certain information for the author. If someone other than the author delivers the argument, the author should supply the following information so it can be given to the Elections Office:

- Residence address
- Mailing address
- Daytime telephone number

If the Elections Office does not receive this information, it may delay delivery of the opposing argument.
